

and brought it. It was sweet when he ate it, but when he had eaten it, when he knew all that was to come, it was bitter and hard to digest.

But he is prophesying what he has been entrusted with, which will be one of the most important tasks: to give the Faith to be transformed and raptured to the believers in Him, who will be seeing the Ark contained in the heart of that prophet. He will continue forward until he reaches the goal of sitting on the Throne of David, in the Kingdom of the Prince Messiah, to reign for a thousand years and for eternity.

THE ARK = THE WORD

It must be carried on the shoulders of the priests, and not in denominational chariots.

It cannot be carried in and on creeds, dogmas and human interpretations. It is the Message, His Word, that must be contained in the heart of the prophet.

It cannot be carried in typologies or shadows.

For them to stop at Jordan and death not touch the priests, they had the Ark, the Word, on their shoulders.

And so that the death of the great tribulation (Jordan at this time) does not kill and prevent the people from passing into the promised land of the new body, the ministers will have the revelation of the Ark of the Word, which will be contained in the heart of our Joseph in the ministries of Moses and Elijah.

And by the people looking at the Ark, and following It in the heart of that Son of Man, together with the ministers ordained by God to be able to touch the Ark and carry it, will pass over Jordan on dry land.

The content of the Ark (the revelation) will be in the heart of all the chosen ones, the wise virgins, and each one will carry the Ark where It has to go, in the heart, the soul, of each chosen one; and that is to pass over Jordan on dry land:

To have the revelation of where the Ark, the Word, is at this time, contained in the heart of a prophet.

Those who carry the Message, which is the Ark, in denominational chariots and interpretations of what the Reverend William Marrion Branham and the Archangel William Soto Santiago said, will not be able to pass over Jordan on dry land, they will not have the joy of carrying the Ark, the Holy Spirit, to Israel; for they will not know where and how it is carried, and they will stumble as the chariot carrying the ark stumbled when it was carried by the oxen, and Uzzah stretched out his hand, and judgment came upon him.

The Ark, the Word, is carried today in the heart of the one who ate the little Book
