Now that Tree back there in Eden, that Tree which was the source of life, was Jesus. In John, chapters 6 through 8, Jesus sets Himself forth as the source of eternal life. He called Himself the Bread from heaven. He spoke of giving Himself and that if a man ate of Him he would never die. He proclaimed that He knew Abraham, and that before Abraham, He WAS. He prophesied that He Himself would give them living waters that if man drank he would never thirst again, but would live eternally. He showed Himself as the GREAT I AM. He is the Bread Of Life, the Well Of Life, the Eternal One, the TREE OF LIFE. He was back there in Eden in the midst of the garden even as He will be in the midst of the paradise of God.

Now with this thought in mind, look at the verse again. "I will give him the hidden manna." We all know that the manna was angel food; it was what God sent down upon the grass for Israel at the time of their wanderings. It was perfect food. It was amazing how those little pellets of food kept them in perfect health. No one got sick. It was all they needed. When the ark was made they put some of that manna into it. Then the ark was put behind the veil and only the high priest would dare approach unto it and then he had to have the sacrificial blood. The Bread from heaven, symbolized by manna, one day came down from heaven and became Life for all who believe on Him. He said:

"I am the bread of life. I am the living bread that came down from heaven, if any man shall eat of this bread he shall live forever."

When He went away He left us His Word, "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every Word that proceeds out of the mouth of God."

His Word was bread. It was the perfect manna, which, if a man live by, he shall never die. But right after the death of the fathers, no one seemed to know the exact truth and in a short while this manna seemed to have become hidden to the people. But in every age God began to give back by revelation that which was hidden until in this last day according to Revelation 10:7, a prophet will come and reveal all the mysteries and then the Lord will come. Now in each age, I say, the messengers received hidden truth. But they did not receive it for themselves only. But it is as it was when the disciples were asked to serve the multitudes loaves and fishes; Jesus gave them the broken food, but they in turn gave it to the people. God gives His hidden manna to the overcomer. It cannot be otherwise. He would not open His treasures to those who spurn what is already revealed.

1 - "I was then brought to a plain where a platform was erected. Apparently, it was under a large tent or auditorium. There were curtains stretched behind the platform. The Lord then told me to pull back the curtains, and when I did so I saw a great mountain of the Bread of Life. He then said: 'Feed these.' And turning around I saw people dressed in white coming from everywhere, forming a large audience."

Now then, there is also the thought of the future partaking of the hidden manna. I think it will be the eternal partaking of the revelation of Jesus Christ in the eternal ages to come. How else could we begin to know the unsearchable riches of His own Being? All that we have longed to know, all our unanswered questions, all that will be revealed. It will be from Christ Who is our life that we receive it. Oh, sometimes we think we get to know a little of Him and His Word down here, and it is so good, it makes us rejoice; but one day when our flesh changes, that Word and He will become what we had never dreamed possible.

It also says here that He is going to give the overcomer a white stone and in (not on) the stone a new name, which the owner alone knows. Now the idea of a new name is a familiar one. Abram was changed to Abraham, Sarai to Sarah, Jacob to Israel, Simon to Peter, and Saul to Paul. These names either brought about a change, or were given because of a change. It was only after Abram and Sarai had their names changed by the Lord that they were made ready to receive the coming son. In Jacob's case, he had to overcome and then he was called a prince. In the case of Simon and Saul, when they had received the Lord, their change came. And today each one of us true believers has had a change in name. We are Christians. It is a name common to all of us. But one day we will have another change; we will of a certainty receive a new name. It could well be that name was our true and original name written in the Lamb's Book of Life from the foundation of the world. He knows the name, but we do not. One day at His good pleasure, we will know also.

As the Scripture says, the proverbist [Ecclesiastes 11:1-2]: "Cast thy bread upon the waters, that after many days thou mayest find it, thou shalt find it: divide it unto seven (it was already distributed to seven in the ages of the past, through each messenger of each age) and divide it also unto eight." For we are of the number eight.

Manna was given to seven of them, the Word of God that descended from Heaven, the divine revelation for each age; and we asked ourselves: "Has not the Lord Jesus Christ left something for us?; because He already gave the Message of each age to each messenger, and He has left us without a Message?" He said: "To those who overcome, to the overcomers, I will give of the hidden Manna; I have something hidden for you. Do not worry that the seven ages are over where I gave out Manna from Heaven; I hid Manna, I have hidden Manna, to give to the eight as well."

Now, notice, it says that He will give him to eat of the hidden Manna, in other words, of the revelation of the Second Coming of Christ, as the Lion of the tribe of Judah, as King of kings and Lord of lords in His Reclaiming Work.

For the seven ages of the gentile Church that have already passed, the revelation was the revelation of the First Coming of Christ as the Lamb of God taking away the sin of the world there on Calvary's Cross.

And we also have that revelation in this end time; but during the seven stages or ages of the gentile Church, during these two thousand years that have passed, they did not have the revelation of the Second Coming of Christ as the Lion of the tribe of Judah; because that revelation, which is the hidden Manna that would be in the Most Holy Place of the spiritual Temple of Christ, in the Age of the Cornerstone, would be given to eat to the sons and daughters of God with the Angel Messenger of the Last Day, which is the faithful and wise servant who would be giving that spiritual food to all the children of God where? In the House of God, which is the Church of the Lord Jesus Christ.

And now, it says [Revelation 2:17]:

"...and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it."

That New Name of the little white Stone, being that the little white Stone is the Second Coming of Christ, the New Name of that little white Stone is the New Name of the Lord Jesus Christ, and that is the Eternal Name of God.
