389 - “Jesus said, ‘When this Gospel is preached—this Gospel is preached to all the world for a witness unto Me, then the end shall be.’ Well, then, if that was what He was talking about, spreading out literature, sending out missionaries with reading, writing, arithmetic, and passing out tracts and making people shake hands and believe that there is a God, if that’s all it was, then He’s far past His coming. Uh-huh. So it shows that the Gospel... Paul said, ‘The Gospel didn’t come in word only, but through power and manifestations of the Holy Ghost.’ Then when Jesus said, ‘Go into all the world and preach the Gospel,’ He said, ‘Go into all the world and demonstrate!’ Oh, I like that. ‘Demonstrate the power of the Gospel.’ Taking the Word, that what It says, and show the people what It says and then make It manifest to them.”

<sup>[123]</sup> Look what taken place, “The—the earthquake; the sun went black, and the moon wouldn’t give its light; and the stars shook and fell.” And, why, everything happened, see, right at the time of the opening of this Sixth Seal. That’s when it takes place, right immediately after the announcing of those martyrs, see. The martyrs had been finished.

be, at any time, see, because the Church is just about ready to take Its flight. But remember, when these things happen, the Bride won't be here. Just remember, the Bride is gone, She don't have to go through any of it. This is a time of Tribulation, of purification of the—of the church; it's put upon her, for her to go through it, not the Bride. He takes His sweetheart out of the way. Yes, sir! She, done redeemed Her. See, it's kind of a... That's His Own selection, His Own choice, like any man takes his bride.

When John the apostle in Revelation, chapter 19, verse 7 to 10, kneeled to worship the Angel that showed him these things, the Angel told him not to do it, to worship God, he told him that he was a servant with his brothers the prophets.

Likewise in Revelation 22, verse 6 to 10, John wanted again to worship at the feet of the Angel of Jesus Christ, and the Angel told him not to do it, to worship God.

Why did this Angel not receive worship when John wanted to offer it to him? Because this Angel is not the Lord Jesus Christ. This Angel is the prophet messenger of the Lord Jesus Christ, sent to His Church in the Last Day to testify of all these things that must happen soon, and thus reveal the secrets that God kept for the end time, the secrets or mysteries that John wanted to know and write, and the secrets that the prophet Daniel wanted to know.

Now, the secret of the Age of the Cornerstone, you see, was not revealed, but this secret that God kept to be revealed in the end time has already been revealed.

And now, we are living in the revealed mystery of the Age of the Cornerstone, where the divine purpose relevant to the Last Day is being fulfilled in the Church of the Lord Jesus Christ; it is there where He places His Angel, and it is there where Christ places His elect of the Last Day; and that is the Golden Age of the Church of Jesus Christ, that is the Golden Age, the golden stage of the spiritual Temple of Christ.

<sup>[200]</sup> Then there was a resurrection, and then come forth the both, just and unjust, and was judged by Christ and the Bride. He came to the earth with ten thousands times ten thousands of His saints. Is that right? His Bride.

<sup>201</sup> Judgment was set. The Books was opened. Books was opened. And another Book was opened, which was the Book of Life. He separated, from there, the goats from the sheep. Is that right? That had nothing to do with the Bride. She was standing right there in judgment, with her Queen... the Queen and King, together. "He came with His saints; ten thousands times thousands ministered to Him," His wife. Then judgment was set, and then the sheep was separated from the goats. Remember the other night, me bringing that little meditation, so you'd understand it, the cowboy meditation? See? There you are.

<sup>202</sup> No, they, that's they, the—the—the church, the people that's in denominations, that are—are genuine Christians, who's receives the Message and they will never see It. It'll never be preached to them. And those in a mixed crowds, who It is preached to, It'll go right over the top of their heads, unless their name was on the Lamb's Book of Life. Yeah. But they will be good people.

<sup>203</sup> And they'll be raised up again and given trial, and be judged by the very group that preached to them. "Don't you know the saints will judge the earth?" They'll be preached to, see. They'll be preached to, by the very same people witnessed to them of the Message, to "Come out of it!" See? I hope that explains it.

Among the things that will be happening at this time, it has been promised that a message will emerge; and therefore, with that Message the promise of the preaching of the Gospel of the Kingdom will be fulfilled, where Christ says in Matthew, chapter 24, verse 14:

“And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come.”

Therefore, the Gospel of the Kingdom that Christ and John the Baptist preached in the midst of the Hebrew people, and was rejected by the Hebrew people, will be preached again in the midst of the people of God, of the Church of Jesus Christ first, and then in the midst of the Hebrew people; and it will be a message for a testimony for all the gentiles; and then the end will come.

Therefore, that Message of the Gospel of the Kingdom will emerge in this end time, where He will be making known that we are in the end time, in the time where the Kingdom of God will be restored on Earth in the midst of the Hebrew people, to rule from there over all nations, which will be the restoration of the Kingdom of David and Throne of David, to which Christ is the heir; and therefore He will be making the claim of that Kingdom and that Throne, to rule from that Kingdom and from that Throne over the Hebrew people and over all nations.

His voice was as the sound of multitudes speaking. What is it? It is the judgment. For these are the voices of the multitudes of witnesses, who by the Holy Spirit all through the ages have testified to Christ and preached His Gospel. It will be the voice of every man rising in judgment against the sinner who would not take warning. The voices of the seven messengers will be heard loud and clear. Those faithful preachers who preached the saving power of Jesus, who preached water baptism in Jesus' Name, who preached the infilling and power of the Holy Ghost, who stood with the Word more than they stood with their own lives; all of them were the voice of Jesus Christ by the Holy Ghost down through the ages. John 17:20, “Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on Me through their word.”

That prophetic Message of Moses and Elijah will be in the Angel Messenger of the Lord Jesus Christ to testify of these things in all the churches; because the ministry of Moses and Elijah will be in him, it will be the ministry of the administrative Angels, administrators of the Word of God, of the Voice of Heaven for the final days.

And we will all have the privilege and blessing of hearing the Voice of Heaven in all that will be spoken in these final days. And you and I will have to be very vigilant, we will have to have our hearts open to that Voice of Heaven that will be proclaiming the Great Voice of Trumpet, the Final Message on this Earth.

We will all be tested at this time; for it is not the same to say: "I believe," than to believe in one's heart and with one's whole heart, and not to deviate to the right or left from what one has believed for nothing in the world. We will all have to be tested to know if we have believed or not in the Voice of Heaven.

Many voices will come to speak, to try to remove that Voice, that Message from Heaven, from the ear and heart and mind of the children of God.

(...) Outside of that promise you will not find another man coming, another prophet after the fourth Elijah; because after the fourth Elijah comes the fifth Elijah with the ministry of the second Moses.

So in the middle of the fourth Elijah and the fifth Elijah and second Moses, there is no other messenger, no other prophet, no other who says that the Voice of God is in him to speak to the people.

After the fourth Elijah, who came with the Voice of God for the seventh age of the gentile Church, for the Laodicean Age, after him, the next one will be the last prophet: He will come with the ministry of the Two Olive Trees, of the Two Candlesticks, the ministry of the administering Angels: Moses and Elijah. That final prophet will come with the manifestation of the Son of Man.

Some have an idea that the two trees in the garden were just two more trees like unto the rest of those that God had placed there. But careful students know that this is not so. When John the Baptist cried that the axe was laid to the root of all trees, he was not talking of simply natural trees, but of spiritual principles. Now in I John 5:11 it says, "And this is the RECORD, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in His Son." Jesus said in John 5:40, "And ye will not come to Me, that ye might have life." Thus the record, God's Word, states plainly and clearly that LIFE, ETERNAL LIFE, is in the Son. It is no other place. I John 5:12, "He that hath the Son hath LIFE; and he that hath not the Son of God hath NOT Life." Now since the record cannot change, be taken from or added thereunto, then the record stands that THE LIFE IS IN THE SON. Since this is so, THE TREE IN THE GARDEN HAS TO BE JESUS.

Who will we go to? Who will we go to, if only in the Angel Messenger of the Lord Jesus Christ with the Great Voice of Trumpet, with the Final Message of Jesus Christ, is only where there is Word of eternal life to be transformed and be raptured by obtaining the faith for the rapture?

Where will you find faith for the rapture and for the transformation? Where? Only in the apocalyptic Thunders, which are the Great Voice of Trumpet, the Message of the Angel of the Lord Jesus Christ. That is why He says: "I send my Angel." He doesn't say: "I send many to prepare you. I send many to testify of these things." NO. "I send my Angel to testify of these things."

That is why it also says in Revelation 1:3: "Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy," which is the Message of the Angel of the Lord. Only in the words of this prophecy of the Angel of the Lord Jesus Christ is where the greatest blessing of the end of the world is.

Now, we can see that being in the most glorious time of all times, we have to keep listening to the only Voice of God, for which God has allowed us to know what the only Voice of God is: It is the Voice of the Angel of the Lord, of Jesus Christ our Savior, who has been speaking from age to age through the messenger of each age. And for this end time, He says<sup>1</sup>:

"I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the churches."

That Message giving testimony of these things is the only Voice of God; because it is the Voice of Jesus Christ in Holy Spirit speaking to His Church in the Last Day through His Angel Messenger, and making known all these things that must happen soon, in this end time.

Therefore, let us keep in our soul and in our congregations, and in the heart of every believer, the only Voice of God; so that by hearing the only Voice of God, we may all be prepared, mature to be transformed and taken with Christ to the Marriage Supper of the Lamb.

The benefit is for all of us, therefore: "If you hear His Voice today (the only Voice of God) do not harden your heart<sup>2</sup>," as the Hebrew people did back in the wilderness, and as they have done throughout the ages when the messenger has departed: they have stopped listening to the only Voice of God, and they heard their own voices, and they denominated themselves; and each age died there; that was the way each age died.

Now, the seven ages are over, they already died, their messengers

1 Revelation 22:16

2 Hebrews 3:15, 4:7; Psalm 95:7-8

died, and those ages also died spiritually; but there is an age that is alive: the Age of the Cornerstone, because it has the only Voice of God, the Voice of Christ, the Angel of the Covenant, the Holy Spirit speaking to us all these things that must happen soon.

And He will continue to speak and we will continue to listen; and thus we will stay spiritually alive, and our congregation will be kept alive, and our age in which God has placed us will be kept alive.

THE ONLY VOICE OF GOD: that is a living Voice, which is appointed for the Last Day as the Great Voice of Trumpet. It is the Voice of Trumpet, the Voice of Archangel, it is the Voice of Christ, the Angel of the Covenant, in the Last Day, speaking to us all these things that must happen soon, in this end time.

That is how we will reach our transformation: by hearing the only Voice of God, which is a living Voice that speaks to us and reveals all these things that must happen soon.
