

Now, many times we look at things from the material point of view; and things always, God's blessings, when He is going to give them, you look at them from the intellectual or material point of view, and you say: "That is a tremendous test." But when you look at it from the spiritual point of view, you realize that it is a very great blessing, but that God sends it in such a simple and humble way that if you don't have your eyes open, you don't realize what a great blessing you can miss if you don't receive it with joy in your heart.

Then, notice, you say to the Lord: "Lord, give me patience." And what is it that produces patience? The trial. When you are under trial say: "Thank you, Lord, that you are giving me patience." See?

So we have to thank the Lord for all those blessings, although we see them as if they were trials, but before the Lord they are blessings; and if you look at them from the spiritual point of view, with your faith in the Word of God, you will not be complaining on this Earth.

BOOK OF THE SEALS

The Sixth Seal – Page 403-404

Rev. William M. Branham

¹¹⁴ What an introduction to... See, the rider's now, the rider's beasts, and the answering Beasts, have ceased. Then, we taken up, we see the martyrs under the Throne. Now this, from the time, these martyrs are the true Orthodox Jews that died in Christian faith... or in—in religious faith, because they could not be Christians.

¹¹⁵ Remember, God blinded their eyes. And they're going to be blind for a long time, until the Gentile Church is taken out of the way. Cause, God doesn't deal with them two people at the same time, because it's very contrary to His Word.

¹¹⁶ Remember, He deals with Israel as a nation, always. It's the nation of Israel.

¹¹⁷ The Gentiles, as individuals, "people taken from the Gentiles." And it had to, the Gentile, had to make... made up of all the people of the world, so now and then there is a Jew comes into that. See? Just like an—like a Arabian, and an Irish, and Indian, and what-more, it's all the people of the world, make up this bouquet Bride. See?

¹¹⁸ But, now, when it comes to dealing then with Israel, in this last part of the seventieth week, He deals with them as a nation, the Gentiles are finished. The hour is soon arriving, and may be yet this—this very night, that God will completely turn from the Gentiles, altogether. Exactly! He said so. "They shall tread down the walls of Jerusalem until the Gentile dispensation be finished, the times are over.” Yes, sir!

¹²¹ We find out now, John said, “I beheld when He had opened the Sixth Seal, there was a great earthquake,” then all nature was interrupted. See?

¹²² God has been doing great things, like healing the sick, and open the eyes of the blind, and doing great work.

the way. Yes, sir! She, done redeemed Her. See, it’s kind of a... That’s His Own selection, His Own choice, like any man takes his bride.

Eating of the Bread of eternal life today

So we find that He had to be born in a manger.

Well, why wasn’t there room there in the inn, in the hotel? Why wasn’t there room in the mayor’s office or in the main place there? Why? Because the one to be born was a lamb, and lambs are born where? In mangers. There, where the other sheep are, that is where they are born; and He was typified as a lamb and had to fulfill everything that typified Him; and He was born in that place.

So you see that everything works together for good. There was no room over there, but there was room there among the sheep; among the goats there was no room, but among the sheep there was room. See? Among the two-legged goats there was not, but among the four-legged sheep there was.

So, you can see that all things work together for good. So you, when you are going through trials and difficult times, don’t be complaining; look at the Word and know that all things work together for good, and put things in God’s hands and see the benefit you will receive.

Don’t complain, everything works together for good for God’s children. Everything! And everything is everything. So don’t complain. Give thanks to the Lord. And when you see difficult moments say: “Oh, Lord, what a great blessing You have for me! Oh, Lord, turn all this into a great spiritual blessing for my soul.” He will turn it into a very great blessing for you.
