

(...) And the things that have to do with the blessings of God, will be materializing in each one of us in this end time; because they are the things that must come to pass according to the revelation of Jesus Christ of the things that must come to pass; in other words, they are inevitable things. As it was inevitable that we would hear the Voice of Christ in this end time, it was also inevitable that we would be gathered; it was inevitable that we would be one hundred percent believers of the Message of the Gospel of the Kingdom; it was inevitable that the Message of the Gospel of the Kingdom would come out in this end time; it was inevitable that the ministry of the Two Olive Trees would appear in this time: It had to come out at the end of time, according to the things that must happen.

In other words, it was inevitable, it can't be avoided, the things that must happen according to the revelation of Jesus Christ in the book of Revelation; as it will also be inevitable that the elect will fully have the faith to be transformed and raptured; because it is in the Thunders, which is the Message of Christ for the end of time.

The scribe (not author) of this book is Saint John the divine. Historians agree that he lived the last part of his life in Ephesus, though at the time of the writing of this book he was on the Isle of Patmos. It is not the life story of John, but it is the Revelation of Jesus Christ in the future church ages. In verse 3 it is called a prophecy and that is actually what it is.

This book is usually termed the Revelation of Saint John, but that is incorrect. It is the Revelation of Jesus Christ given to John for Christians of all ages. It is the only book in the entire Bible that is written by Jesus Himself, through personally appearing to a scribe.

It is the last book of the Bible, yet it tells the beginning and the end of the dispensations of the Gospel.

Now the Greek word for revelation is “apocalypse” which means “unveiling.” This unveiling is perfectly described in the example of a sculptor unveiling his work of statuary, exposing it to the onlooker. It is an uncovering, revealing what was previously hidden. Now the uncovering is not only the revelation of the Person of Christ, but it is THE REVELATION OF HIS FUTURE WORKS IN THE ONCOMING SEVEN CHURCH AGES.

1121 – “Now, Son of man is a ‘prophet.’ Even Jehovah Himself called Ezekiel, said, ‘Son of man.’ Jehovah, speaking to a man, prophet, called him, ‘Son of man.’ And Jesus identified Himself as Son of man, ’cause the Scriptures cannot be broken.”

1262 – “And today, Jesus said in Luke the 17th chapter and the 30th verse, ‘As it was in the days of Lot, so shall it be at the end time when the Son of man...’ Now remember, ‘Son of man’ is a prophet. Jehovah called Ezekiel a ‘son of man.’ Jesus come in three names: Son of man, Son of David, Son of God. He called Himself ‘Son of man’ so that the people would understand, for He was that Prophet that the Lord God would raise up. Now notice, then He promised what? The Son of man would reveal Himself again just before that time, before the fire.”

THE TIME TO HEAR THE WORDS OF THE APOCALYPTIC PROPHECY

In order to receive our transformation, we need to listen to the words of the apocalyptic prophecy that correspond to our time.

Remember that in this apocalyptic revelation there is the Word of God for every age and for every dispensation, for the Dispensation of Grace and for the Dispensation of the Kingdom. That is why you find that here, the revelation given to John the beloved disciple on the Isle of Patmos during a time span of two years, speaks of the ages of the gentile Church and also speaks of the glorious Millennial Kingdom, and also speaks of the Last Judgment and the entrance into eternity.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST OF THE THINGS THAT MUST HAPPEN

Part I

And now, look here on chapter 1, verse 3, of Revelation, what it tells us: “Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy...”

Do you see that this book of Revelation is a prophecy? A prophecy that covers hundreds of years, and that covers the gentile Church ages, and that also covers the time that is to elapse after the end of the gentile Church ages; it also covers the time of the great tribulation, it also covers the time of the glorious Millennial Kingdom, and it also covers all of eternity, which has been placed in that all-encompassing form.

Now, blessed are those who read, and those who hear the words of this prophecy. And when the words of this prophecy are fulfilled, blessed are those who can see what is being fulfilled according to the apocalyptic revelation and those who can hear the teaching of the fulfillment of this apocalyptic prophecy, as it is being fulfilled.

(...) So apocalyptic prophecies that are in symbolic form are being fulfilled in us, but that are being covered with flesh in us; those symbolic prophecies related to us, in which God is carrying out His final Work, are becoming human beings. That is why we are letters read by all men, we are apocalyptic letters read by all men.

When I see you, I am seeing the apocalyptic Scriptures in the form of human beings; when I see you, I am seeing the Scripture, I am reading the Scripture; when I see you, I am reading the Scripture that says: “My sheep hear my voice and follow me.” Thus said the Lord Jesus Christ.
