

The Voice of God, which moved the Earth in past times, will speak again, and will move not only the Earth but also the Heavens (or heaven).

And that Voice will be the Voice of God through His Holy Spirit, the Angel of the Covenant, speaking in this end time through a dispensational prophet, through a man of flesh, bone and blood. And that Voice will be the infallible Word of the infallible God for the Church of the Lord Jesus Christ, for all Christianity and for all nations, peoples and tongues, and for the Hebrew people also.

Once again, the Infallible One, God the Creator of Heaven and Earth, has promised that He will be speaking in this end time:

“And this word, Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.”

With this shaking of the Earth and the Heavens, man-made things (such as buildings and all these things) will be removed with great earthquakes, also great tidal waves and tsunamis; and by means, also, of a Third World War, which will be atomic, which will cause great damage to the human race; but the Earth will be straightened, the degrees of inclination that it has; and everything will work together for good because it will be straightened and everything will be prepared for the Millennial Kingdom of the Messiah.

All things will work together for good for those who love God and those who are loved by God.⁴ All things will work together for good for the Messiah, for the Church of the Lord Jesus Christ and for the Hebrew people; and for all the nations that will enter the glorious Millennial Kingdom of the Messiah.

And so it happens to many children of God: They hear the Voice of God, they hear the Message of God, and they say: “It is not Him, it can’t be”; but sooner or later, when it becomes clear to him, when it becomes clear, when it dawns for him, then he will say: “But it was the Voice of the Lord, the Message of the Lord! And I said it wasn’t! But now I know it was Him, I know it was the Voice of the Lord, I know it was what I was waiting for; and I was rejecting it.”

The same thing happened to Saul of Tarsus; so you are not the first one to have that happen to you. The same thing happened to Saul of Tarsus: he persecuted the Way of God; but in the long run he came to discover that he was persecuting the Way of God, and then he entered the Way he was pursuing. And he said: “The Way they call heresy”... he also called it “heresy,” but then he discovered that it was the Way of God. “And according to that Way (he said), according to that Way I serve the God of my fathers.”¹

So we have to understand all these things; lest a year, two years have passed, and then the person comes, and then comes with doubts, saying: “But I believe that I am not a child of God, because I rejected the Message, the Word, in the previous years.”

Look, he was always a child of God, what happened is that he hadn’t understood; and until one understands, he can’t act. And you can’t coerce² the Word, the things of God, but people have free will; and free will is given to them, it is given to them to choose if they want or do not want to receive the Word of God.

² Coerce: to compel to an act or choice (Merriam-Webster)

Our job is to preach, to make known the Word of God, and to wait for God to work with each person there in his heart; sooner or later, the one who is of God will hear the Voice of God and follow it.

So some come first, and others come later.

The one who comes first, well, he has the opportunity to be aware of everything that has come from the beginning; but the one who comes later, has a lot of food stored up to eat a lot of food at the same time; but he has to take it with understanding, lest he gets indigestion, as we say, it is going to be harmful to him; lest you get a little legalistic or fanatic, and they try to attack other people's things too, no; if you had to wait so long, also understand that the other people, until they understand, until they see, they can't receive anything.

What good is it to a person who says: "I am going to receive that, but I don't understand anything or believe anything"? What good is it to him? It is of no use to him; he is a hypocrite; because if he neither believes nor understands anything, then what is he going to receive? He is not receiving anything. He only comes, he only is, he only attends, but he is nothing yet; until that seed of a child of God awakens in him. Until he awakens as a child of God to the reality and to God's Plan, to God's cycle for the time in which he is living, even then he is still asleep.

You see, just as many nations have the official religion of the State, look now: The Government of Jesus Christ, the Kingdom of Jesus Christ, will have the official religion, and will have the official Message, which is the Message of the Gospel of the Kingdom.

So everything there will be official, in the Kingdom of God; and outside of that there will be no other religions, there will be no other ways of believing; only the one established by God in the Millennial Kingdom and then for all eternity.

The whole Earth and all human beings will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, will be filled with the knowledge of the Second Coming of Christ.

And when they are filled with that knowledge, why do they want other religions?, and why do they want wrong ways of believing? For nothing. So there will only be one way of believing in God.

The religious superstitions of all those pagan religions will disappear, all erroneous beliefs will disappear; and it will only be believed according to the Message of the Gospel of the Kingdom; and it will be established —in that glorious Millennial Kingdom— the correct way of believing and serving God during the Millennial Kingdom, and then for all eternity.

(...) Well, we are going to see, when we are in the Millennial Kingdom, how the Millennial Kingdom will be full of Latin American and Caribbean people; and we are going to see how Spanish will be spoken in the four corners of planet Earth. It is not even necessary to try to impose the language: everybody will want to learn Spanish.

There will be many people on Earth who will be listening to what the Holy Spirit will be speaking; but some will not believe, but others will believe.

And I am one of those who believe what the Spirit spoke in the past and what He is speaking in this end time! And who else? Each one of you too. "If you hear His Voice today, harden not your heart."³ It is the Voice of God, it is the Voice of the Infallible One, speaking His infallible Word to us.

[Hebrews 12:25] "See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven:

Whose voice then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying, Yet once more (that is, once again, still once more) I shake not the earth only, but also heaven."
